

Presenter

Mike Gillam, dip policing

Investigator

Practical experience gained from New Zealand Police:

Responsibilities:

- Investigate crimes such as burglary, theft, fraud, and assault.
- Interview suspects, victims, witnesses and take statements.
- Prepare files for Defendant prosecution.
- Write accurate and professional reports and give evidence in court.
- Provide support and assistance to people in a wide range of emergencies.
- Search for and arrest suspected criminals.

Major Achievements:

- Top percentile achiever on graduation from the Royal New Zealand Police College.
- Top percentile leader in proactively and reactively apprehending criminals.

Professional Training – New Zealand Police:

- Diploma in Police Workplace Practice.
- Certificate in Introduction to Criminal Law (Victoria University).
- Investigative Interviewing Course.
- Contemporary Policing in New Zealand Course.
- Ethics Training.
- Human Rights Training.
- Evidence Act 2006 Familiarisation.
- Criminal Disclosure Act 2008 Course.
- Code of Conduct Familiarisation.
- Family Violence Training.
- Protection Order Training.

Qualifications

- Diploma in Policing
- Certificate in Introduction to Criminal Law (Victoria University).

Experience

Mike has a high level of integrity. He has excellent communication, presentation and interpersonal skills, with the ability to relate effectively with people from a diverse range of ethnic, cultural, socio-economic and language backgrounds. He has a solid understanding of a wide range of human behavioural concepts through practical experience in the New Zealand Police.